The Mississippi State University Extension Service (MSU-ES) prides itself on providing quality educational programs. The primary purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and well being of all participants.

MSU-ES Volunteers will:

- Accept personal responsibility to represent _____ County and MSU-ES programs with dignity and pride by being positive role models.
- Conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner, exhibit good sportsmanship and provide positive role models for youth as well as adults.
- Respect, adhere to and enforce the rules, policies and guidelines established by _____ County and MSU-ES programs.
- Abstain from, and not, tolerate physical or verbal abuse.
- Avoid criminal activities.
- Comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws.
- Under no circumstances, possess, sell or consume alcohol or controlled substances at a MSU-ES activity or event.

It is important that all Mississippi State University Extension Volunteers comply with the Code of Conduct. Failure to comply with any component of the code or participation in other inappropriate conduct as determined by MSU-ES representatives may lead to dismissal as a volunteer from the Mississippi State University Extension program.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.
